Sunit Tandon introduces a live recording of French composer Jules Massenet's sensuous opera, which has the well-loved orchestral Méditation as an entr'acte. Thaïs takes place in Egypt during Byzantine rule, where a Cenobite monk, Athanaël, attempts to convert Thaïs, an Alexandrian courtesan and devotee of Venus, to Christianity, but discovers too late that his obsession with her is rooted in lust. While the courtesan's true purity of heart is revealed, so is the religious man's baser nature.

Best wishes
